In the past four years, 100% of Schwob School of Music students who applied were awarded both a scholarship and grant to study abroad at, among many other places, CSU’s Beautiful Spencer House in Oxford, England. In addition to providing study abroad opportunities for students at CSU, the Schwob School of Music periodically hosts a visiting professor in Latin American Studies or European Studies.

Servant Leadership at CSU is a comprehensive program committed to developing future leaders. Scholarships are competitively awarded offering a $1,250 stipend each semester.

The CSU Honors Program is designed for academically talented students committed to engaging in their discipline through experiential learning and creative scholarship. Entering freshmen are eligible for either the $5,000 Presidential Honors Scholarship or one of the $2,500 Honors Scholarships awarded annually.
Rich with cultural and historic experiences, downtown Columbus is always alive with music, performances, and special events — many of them free! Grab your walking shoes or your bike and hit the 15-mile Chattahoochee River Walk; visit the Coca-Cola Space Science Center, take in a performance at the State Theatre of Georgia; the Springer Opera House; and see amazing concerts at the RiverCenter for the Performing Arts. And for something completely different: coming soon you will be able to navigate the longest urban whitewater course in the world on the Chattahoochee River. Music, Broadway shows, art, history, great food, and true Southern Hospitality.... It’s all in downtown Columbus in the heart of the RiverPark Campus of Columbus State University.
